

Land Restoration with Bamboo

Prof. Yang Yuming

Mr. Tom Obong Okello

Mr. Durai Jayaraman

Language: English

Time: 19:30-21:00 (Beijing, GMT+8), July 7, 2020

Join via: <https://bit.ly/31CHTYq>

Moderator: Yanxia Li and Trinh Thang Long

This session will discuss challenges and solutions for landscape restoration with bamboo, a fast growing species that can rapidly re-green degraded land and provide valuable revenue to smallholder farmers from annual selective harvesting as little as three years after planting. Bamboo is considered a high potential crop for landscape restoration in several countries, and can contribute towards several important development and environmental targets.